95 POINTS - HALLIDAY WINE COMPANION - DEC 2024

This is the flagship Angove shiraz. It's not their most costly, but it is their standard bearer from the Vale, embodying traditional import allied with considerable refinement. The '21, a cool, long vintage, has allowed for impeccable balance in the lusciously ripe black cherry, blackberry, sour plum and raspberry fruit, with milk chocolate and licorice accenting along a distinctly saline line. This is silky, richly proportioned, though balanced, with oak seasoning (but not overtly). It's a little indulgent but very much discreet with it.
