Halliday Wine Companion - 2024 - 95 Points

"A lovely wine that's refined, pure and long, despite an element of oak that merely serves to dry out the finish while suggesting excessive ageing. Kirsch, bergamot, rosehip and cranberry. The time on skins feels adequate, yet a little more courage will elevate this into the regional pantheon."

Ned Goodwin MW - JamesSuckling.com - August 2023 - 95 Points

"A wonderful wine that is refined, pure and long, despite an element of oak that does slightly dry out the finish, while suggesting excessive ageing when top producers' 2021s are already in the market, if not already sipped. Kirsch, bergamot, rosehip and cranberry. Hand-picked, fermented 'lasagna' style (with 50% of fruit crushed atop the remainder) as whole bunches. The time on skins feels adequate, yet a little more courage will elevate this into the regional pantheon. As it stands, this is nipping at the heels. Drink or hold."
